2. Chapter 2

The Dove house

"Lucas, Stacey!" Emma shouted. "What is it mum?" Lucas asked. "We are going to the McCartney's house in fifteen minutes. Be ready then." Emma answered. "It's the same every month." Stacey sighs. "What do you want sis. It's the full moon." Lucas says to her and he grabbed his stuff together.

The Bennet's house

"Blair, Matt!" Zane yelled. "What!" Matt shouted back. "Just be ready in fifteen minutes, we're going to the McCartney's." Zane said. "Yes dad." Matt answered and he rolled his eyes. "Why don't they let use home. We can protect ourselves from the moon." Blair said. "You know them. They don't want 'accidents', like the last time Blair." Matt said to his sister. "What, you were the one that pushed me outside." Blair said and before the two of them could argue more, Rikki came into the room and said: "You two have five more minutes to get your stuff, otherwise you don't have anything for tonight and tomorrow." "Yes mum." they both answered.

The Benjamin's house

"Ryan! Are you ready yet?" Isla said and she walked into the room. "Isla, you know I want some privacy." Ryan says irritated. "Mum and dad told me to get you." "Yeah, yeah. I just need to find my headphones." "Didn't you borrow those to Maggie?" Isla asked. "Dang it, you're right." Ryan says and he hits himself on the head. "C'mon, you can ask them back when we get there." Isla said and the two of them went downstairs.

The McCartney's home

"Is everything ready Lewis?" Cleo asked. "Yes, everything is ready." Lewis answers when the doorbell rings. "There you have them!" Maggie yelled and she ran to answer it. "Hey Ryan, Isla. Hai aunt Bella. Hello uncle Will. C'mon in." Maggie said. "Hey Mag." Ryan answered. At that moment, both the Dove family and the Bennet family also came. "Hey everyone." Cleo greeted and everyone came inside and Cleo locked the door.

3. Chapter 3

Stacey's p.o.v.

"Hey." I said. "Hey Stace." Jody says back. I couldn't help, but smiling. It was just the way my parents raised me and my brother. "Hello girls." my dad suddenly says. "Can I get past?" "Yes dad." I said and I stepped away. "Sure uncle Ash." Jody says and she too stepped away. I know we aren't family, but we hang out with each other all the time that we just say it that way. "Dinner is in an hour." Cleo, Jody's mother shouts from the kitchen. At that moment, both Blair and Isla joined us. "Are we going upstairs?" Blair asked. "Yes, follow me." Jody said and the four of us went to Jody's room.

Blair's p.o.v.

"Do you each know the plan for tonight?" I asked the others. "I still think this isn't a good idea." Stacey said. "C'mon Stace, as long as we don't see the moon, we can still go." Isla said to her. Stacey sighs and said: "Only when we don't get into trouble." "You know me, I never want put you into trouble." I said and then we all started to laugh. "What are you laughing about?" Maggie, Jody's little sister suddenly asked. "Because of you and Ryan." Isla said. "What about us?" Maggie asks and she turns red. "That you two like each other. Bye now." Jody says and she shuts her door.

Jody's p.o.v.

"Little sisters can be so annoying." I sigh. "She is gone now. Shall we repeat the plan again?" Blair asks. "Yes." Isla said and Blair picked up a map. "Tonight is the only night Mako island is supposed to give mermaids special new powers. At ten o'clock, we all go to bed. At eleven o'clock, we sneak out of the house and swim to Mako island. Once we get there, we go to the moon pool, recieve our new powers and then go back home, before anyone noticed we were gone." Blair finished her story.

Isla's p.o.v.

"I wonder what kind of powers we will get." I said. "Didn't you find anything more?" Stacey asked. "Nope, just this." Blair answered. "Girls, are you coming." Bella, my mother, shouted. "We're coming!" I shouted back and we went downstairs to eat.

4. Chapter 4

Stacey's p.o.v.

After dinner, Jody, Blair, Isla and I went upstairs. "I still think this isn't a good idea." I said. "Don't be so boring Stacey." Blair said. "What could go wrong?" "Umm, let me think. Oh yes, everything." I practicly yelled. "Stacey, quiet. Otherwise they are gonna check on us." Isla said.

Isla's p.o.v.

At 11 p.m. we all got dressed and masked our faces, so we didn't see the full moon. Our mothers can resist it now, but we can't. I thought. "Is everyone ready?" "Yes." they all said back. We sneaked out of the house and went to the old boat of Uncle Lewis. Just when we got there, a voice said: "Are you girls going somewhere?"

Blair's p.o.v.

"Matt? What are you doing here?" I asked. "The same as you sis. I found your plans and I want some new powers to." he said. "What!" I heard Jody say. "Matt, why don't you just leave us alone." I said to him. "Oh no. I'm going with you guys, or I'm busting you that you sneaked out on a full moon." "Let him come." Stacey said.

Jody's p.o.v.

"What! You're kidding me right?" Blair said. "No, she is not." I said. "You were the one that planned all of this, and I don't want any trouble." At the look of Blair's face, I saw that she was giving in. "Okay, let him come." she said. "Finally." Matt said and he laughed.

No one's p.o.v.

The group made it's way to Mako island. But when they pulled the boat at the shore, Isla's sunglasses fell off. No one noticed it, except Matt. "You guys." he said. "What is it?" Stacey asked. "We need to go back. Isla saw the moon." "Don't be so stupid. I didn't see it." Isla said. "C'mon, we need to go. It's almost time." Blair said. The group went to the moon pool and when they got there, the pool was red, green, yellow, blue and purple at the same time. "Is this alright?" Jody asked. "Of course." Isla answered and she jumped in. The others got wet too, so they all went into the pool. At that moment bubbles went up and they all got separated from each other.

Matt's p.o.v.

I saw Stacey going into the west part of the pool, Jody got into the east part, while Blair went in the south part of the pool. I saw Isla last and she got into the north part and I went in the middle. Each of us got surrounded by small bubbles, with mine being purple, my sister Blair had red bubbles, Stacey had blue bubbles, Jody had yellow bubbles and by Isla they were green.

5. Chapter 5

Isla's p.o.v.

When the bubbles stopped, we each climbed out of the water. "You see. I bet we have some new powers tomorrow." Blair said. "Why did we go out of the water?" I asked and I jumped in. "Bye everyone. I'm going for a swim." I said and I swam away.

Matt's p.o.v.

"Told you that she saw the moon." I said to the others. "We need to get her." Jody said and she started panicking. "Easy Jo. Panicking isn't going to help us." Stacey said to calm her down. "We need to swim to get her." I said. "How would you want to do that without one of us seeing the moon either, smartpants." Blair said. "By letting us go." A voice suddenly said. "Mom!" Jody said surprised.

Jody's p.o.v.

"Mom!" I said surprised. "What are you doing here?" "That's the same question we wanted to ask you all." Emma, Stacey's mother said. "Well, there was a special full moon." Blair reluctantly said. "Guys, what did we tell you about the full moon?" "Never go out to see it, especially special ones." We all said together. "Now you all go home, while Cleo, Rikki and me go searching for Isla." Bella said. "Okay." We said and we went back home.

6. Chapter 6

Blair's p.o.v.

"Let me sleep." I muttered when someone tried to wake me up.
>"Time for plan B." I heard someone say and the next thing I knew that I was completely wet.
"What was that for!" I yelled angry and I stood up.
>"Five, four, three, two, one." Stacey said in the mean time.
"Why are you counting?" I asked.
>"Don't you see it. You are wet and you don't have a tail." Jody said.
I looked at her suprised and then I realised it. "Holy shells." I said and I looked at my legs.
>"Thanks Blair. How are we going to explain this to our parents?" Stacey said sarcastic.
"Don't put this on me Stace. How was I supposed to know that this moon would take our powers away?" I said when the door opened.

"Explain." Matt said.
>"Explain what?" I asked.
"Why isn't my tail popping up when I get wet?" Matt asked and I sighed.
>"How should I know?"
"You guys. Arguing can't help us." Jody said.
>"I know. I mean it's not like we can wish our tails back." Stacey said.
"We can at least try." I said.

"I wish to be a mermaid again." I said and suddenly I fell.
>"O my god." Jody screamed and she passed out.
"Jody!" My brother yelled and he ran to her.
>He and Stacey put Jody on her bed and then I saw my tail. It was a deep red, instead of the usual orange color.
"What is this?" Stacey asked when the door opened.

"Hey you guys." Isla said when she walked into the room.
>"My mum asked me to get you all." She said and then she saw my tail.
"What did you do?" Isla asked me.
>"It was the full moon last night." Jody said when she woke up.
"Jody." Matt said and he rushed to her.
>I quickly hid my smile, because I knew that they liked each other, but didn't want to say it.
"Are you alright?" Matt asked her.

>"Yes I am." Jody answered.

"Uhm." Isla coughed, ruining the moment. "What did you say about the full moon Jo?"

7. Chapter 7

Jody's p.o.v.

"Well, dad once told me that you could never now what a full moon can do with the moon pool and mermaids. And since we were in the moon pool last night, the change of color of the tails can explain it." I finished my explanation.
>"Okeâ€|" Blair said and she put her hand to make herself dry. After a few minutes, her tail was stil there.

"Oh shells." Blair said and she tried it again.
>"Wait Blair, what if you wish that you are a human again?" Stacey suggested.
"Okay, I try." Blair said. "I wish I am a human again." And when she opened her eyes, she had her legs back.
>"Awesome." Isla said. "Now we don't have to worry about getting wet in the public."
"Why don't you all try it?" Blair asked and Matt,

Stacey, Isla and I all wished to be mermaids/merman.

Soon after, everyone, except Blair and me all fell on the floor. I looked at my tail and it was deep yellow, like a sunflower. I looked at the others and Stacey's tail was aquablue, Isla's tail was green as grass in the spring and Matt's tail was dark purple, almost black."

>"Nice tails." I suddenly heard someone say.

"Maggie, go away." I said angry.

>"Okay, but I'll be right back. With mum and dad." She said.
I threw a pillow to her, but she ducked just in time. "Great, just great." I said. "Shall we transform back?" Isla asked and we all wished to be normal again.

8. Chapter 8

Isla's p.o.v.

"What are we going to say to our parents?" I asked when I heard Emma, Stacey's mum, call us. "We're coming." Stacey shouted downstairs. "C'mon." She said and we all followed her. "Maggie just told us about your change." Rikki immediately said. "It's because of the moon last night." Jody blurted out. "What do you mean?" Lewis asked his daughter. "When we went into the moon pool, each of us got into a different part of it and five colors came around us." Jody explained. "Really." I asked. "I can't remember that." "Duh, you were moonstruck." Blair said and she rolled her eyes. "Thanks to who?" I asked her. "Not me." She said and she stuck her tongue out. "Don't argue now." Mum said to us. "Can you show us your new tails?" "Sure." Stacey said. We all sat down on the floor. "I'm going to get some water." Cleo said. "No need to aunt Cleo, because we don't need water to transform now." I said to her. "I don't get it anymore." Will, my dad said. "Because of this." Matt said and he wished for his tail to appear. Our parents eyes almost popped out of their heads when they saw his dark purple tail. I looked at the other girls and we wished at the same time for ours to appear. "Yellow, red, green, blue and purple." Lewis summed up. "I wonder what those colors mean." "They stand for the elements." I said.

9. Chapter 9

Matt's p.o.v.

"What do you mean with elements?" I asked Isla. "Do you know the House of Night books? I read in those books that they used colors to divine each element." "You have that out of a fantasy book about vampires?" Jody asked her friend. "Just listen to me. Yellow stands for air, green stands for earth, blue is supposed to be water and red is fire." "Why is my tail purple then?" I asked her. "Purple stands for spirit. I guess, since you were the only boy in the moon pool, you got spirit." Isla explained. "I don't believe in this." Blair said. "Blair, honey. I think Isla's got a point." Zane said to his daughter. "Yes, think about it. Jody can control the wind and water, which is air and she got a yellow tail. Stacey can create snow and ice, and she got a blue tail, which stands for water. Blair's tail is red, which stands for fire, as she can control fire and lightning and she can boil water. Isla got the color green, which stands for earth, and she can crystalize water, make it explode, jelly fie it and she can make earthquakes." Lewis summed up.

"I got the same powers as Blair. Why is my tail purple then?" I asked confused. "I think it's the reason Isla just explained." Lewis said. "Try your powers." "Okay." I said and I put my hands in the right position. "Wait! Not inside." Cleo said. "She's right. I think it's better to go to Mako island." Emma said.

10. Chapter 10

Blair's p.o.v.

We all got dressed and we went to the canal behind the house. Our mothers jumped into it, transforming after ten seconds. I jumped in too, together with Isla, Stacey, Jody and Matt. I came up and I wished to be a mermaid again. The rest of the group did it too and we followed our mothers to Mako island. I looked back and saw Maggie, Lucas and Ryan following us.

When we finally got at Mako, we surfaced at the beach. "I wish to be a human." I said and I felt the tingly feeling that my legs returned. "Hey, I'm still wet." Isla complained. I looked at myself and noticed it too. "Well, that's a first." Stacey said. "What do you mean?" I asked her. "This is the first time we're wet without getting our tails." "I liked it better when it wasn't like this." Matt mumbled. I gave him a mad look, although I wasn't really comfortable with this too. "Guys, c'mon. We need to go farther into the island." Emma called us. "We're coming." Stacey told her. We followed them and stopped by the waterfall. "Wasn't it easier to just swim to the moon pool?" Ryan asked his mother. "We don't need the moon pool. Here is more space to practice everyone's powers." Bella explained. "Who wants to go first?" Cleo asked. I saw that everyone kept still, so I sighed and said: "I'll go. What do I need to do?" "Just try your normal powers first." Rikki, my mother said. I put my hand in the right way to activate my powers, but nothing happened. "Whatâ€¦" I said and I tried again. "What is this, why won't it work." I said getting angrier by the second. "This is interesting." Lewis said to himself. "No it's not. I'll bet I can't even create a fire anymore." I yelled mad. Just then, a big flame appeared and covered both my hands. It even swallowed my whole body, but I only felt a slight warmth. "Blair!" Both my parents yelled. I saw Cleo and Maggie making the gestures and I felt the water falling over me, but it didn't help. I was still covered in fire. "Fire, it's all right. Let go of me." I said. The fire was put out, but I missed it. It was like I was part of it. "Blair. Is everything okay?" my dad asked. "Yes, yes I am." I answered.

11. Chapter 11

Hey you guys. I am so sorry for not updating for so long! I can't, however, promise I will update anytime sooner. I am very busy with school and I have to work forward so I can go to the USA in the summer vacation! I am also in love with Doctor Who at the moment and I'm catching up with the new series. Sorry for this short chappie, but please read it and review. Bye all

Isla's p.o.v.

This is unbelievable, I thought. How the hell can she be covered in fire? "It's my turn now." I heard Matt saying. He positioned his hand the same way as Blair did and he left his body. Literally. He is a ghost now. By the looks of it, I wasn't the only one who got freaked out by this. "Matt!" aunt Rikki screamed and she ran towards her son, only to run right through him. "This is kind of awesome." Matt said, "Creepy, but cool." "Who you gonna call?" Blair said. "Ghostbusters!" I finished. "Can't you guys be serious for once. Look at him, he is a ghost." Stacey said. "Just watch." said Matt and he turned back into his body. "Jody, Stacey and Isla, let's test what the three of you can do." uncle Lewis said. All three of us did the same. I felt the earth covering every inch of my body and I felt really peaceful. After a few minutes, I heard my mother call me: "Please turn back again Isla." I felt reluctantly to do this, but I did it anyway. I looked around and asked: 'How did I look?' "You looked like a tree. Literally." "What about the others?" "Jody looked like a little tornado and Stacey was water." "This is incredible, I'm going to look up what this could have caused." Uncle Lewis then said. "At least we know that Isla's theory was right." "I'm going to read the Fledgling's handbook 101 again. Maybe there will be something in it about elemental things." I told the rest. "And I am going to look up that old book." "What old book Lewis." "You know, from the wishing potion." "You've still got that? I thought you got right of it years ago." Cleo asked her husband. "Not really, I kept it, just in case."
